

2nd Year Vocabulary

humiliate, pernicious, vitiate, resolute, pedantic, eminent, indolent, sympathize, impugn, proficient, succumb, complacent, complaisant, pejorative, punctilious, inexorable, iconoclast, antecedent, fervor, deference, obstreperous, tangible, surreptitious, merriment, mercantilism, legislature, bicameral, inveigh, sovereignty, sectionalism, infraction, concise, abridge, prudent, transient, usurp, despot, candid/candor, relinquish, dissolution, perfidy, absolve, magnanimous/magnanimity, acquiesce, appropriate, demagogue, plebeian, espouse, judicious, increment, genre, kinetic, harbinger, nepotism, querulous, nefarious, facetious, fauna, altruism, ameliorate, abdicate, mortify, chagrin, recrimination, turpitude, relegate, sardonic, abridge, construe, hyperbole, infamous, juxtapose, paroxysm, posterity, ordain, redress, prescribed, ascertained, providence, oblique, futile, vindictive, efface, diffident, vociferous, decadent, precedent, blithe, acute, insolent, ardent, extricate, accost, zealous, quixotic, wanton, nefarious, guile, facetious, gravity, juxtapose, laud, ubiquitous, adroit, opulent, axiom, aristocratic, insatiable, strife, delude, felicity, disparage, infamous, deity, extricate, stoic, consecrate, histrionic, sophomoric, innocuous, innate, empirical, milieu, microcosm, subtle, affluent, periphery, wistful, willful, sublime, iconic, volition, irascible

Common Usage Errors: all right; among/between; anxious; as far as ...is concerned; as/like; biweekly (etc.); can/may; capital/capitol; common/mutual; commonplace; compare to/compare with; equally as; each other/one another; fewer/less; different from; fact that/that; farther/further; former/latter; irregardless; lay/lie; plurals & singulars; presently; stationary/stationery; that/which; whether or not

GRAMMAR terms -- you must know these definitions, too:

noun, verb, adjective, adverb, article, preposition, predicate adjective, predicate nominative (noun), direct object, indirect object, gerund, participle

VERBS OF BEING (memorize them) -- am, is, are, was, were, be, being, been

From the dictionary: merriment, mercantilism, legislature, bicameral, inveigh, sovereignty, sectionalism, infraction, concise